

SITUATION IN MEXICO IS ALARMING

Secretary of State Bryan Sends Summons to Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson in Troubled Capital Calling Him to Washington for Detailed Report on Situation in Latin Republic.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)
WASHINGTON, July 16.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Acting on instructions from President Wilson, Secretary of State Bryan today telegraphed Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson, American ambassador to Mexico, to come to Washington immediately for a conference on the Mexican situation. The President desires a detailed report of conditions there.

The hope of the administration to postpone action in regard to Mexico until the October election in that country, it is generally believed, has been destroyed as a result of the informal representations of Great Britain. It is understood that the British foreign office has practically served notice on the state department that the United States must guarantee peace in Mexico under the Monroe Doctrine. Other European nations are expected to follow.

The United States is virtually the only civilized nation now withholding recognition of the Huerta government in Mexico. It is feared if the United States were to recognize Huerta now it would be construed as a "back-down," and that Huerta would become more arrogant than ever. The fact, however, that the Huerta government has not been recognized makes it difficult adequately to protest against the treatment accorded American residents, and Ambassador Wilson is prevented from acting in concert with representatives of the other powers in Mexico City.

FEELING IS STRONG AGAINST AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Reports from Mexico indicate that the anti-American sentiment in that country is growing. Both the Federal and Mexican Rebels are incensed against United States citizens. Oscar Branniff, one of the richest men in Mexico, conferred today with President Wilson, and it is understood he reported the conditions in the Southern Republic are alarming. After this conference a statement was issued by Secretary of State Bryan that Ambassador Wilson had been summoned to Washington. Bryan refused to affirm or deny the report that Germany had intervened in Mexico, and the United States to intervene in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 16.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Fifteen conspirators involved in an alleged plot to assassinate President Huerta and General Felix Diaz and Blanquet, are reported to have been shot at sunrise today. Confirmation could not be obtained at the war office. It was suggested that there was a possibility of the train where the conspirators were sent to Morales having been attacked which caused the belief that the conspirators are dead.

ADDITIONAL CONFLICTING REPORTS FROM THE ORIENT ADD TO UNCERTAINTY OF SITUATION

Reports from the scene of trouble in China continue to be conflicting, according to the dispatches received in Honolulu yesterday, and would indicate that no battle has been fought as yet despite previous reports. An Associated Press cable from Peking says that a well confirmed report has reached there that six southern provinces friendly to Dr. Sun Yat Sen, are preparing to declare their independence of the central government and form a new confederacy, and that they claim to have Japanese support for their plan.

Local Japanese who are in close touch with conditions in the Far East, say that Japan is in a way divided on the Chinese question; that the present Japanese government is supporting Yuan Shih-kai's government, because of the five-power loan made to the central government and to which Japan was a party.

On the other hand, it is stated, that the Japanese Merchants Association is giving aid and comfort to Doctor Sun and the southern provinces in their opposition to the central government.

According to a cable received by the Nippon Jiji yesterday General Wong Ling, is preparing to take the field against the armies of Yuan Shih-kai in support of Doctor Sun Yat Sen.

The Sun Chung Kwok Bo, which is friendly to the central government, has received word that General Li Yuan Hung, the vice president of China, and the general who displayed the greatest ability during the revolution, has requested to be allowed to take the field in person against the rebels in Kiang province, but that Minister of War Tsao advised against this, on the ground that Wong Ling, who is leading the southern insurgents, is a man of no military training or ability, that the genius of Li Yuan Hung will not be necessary to bring about the defeat of the insurgents.

Minister Tsao suggested that two Chinese cruisers be directed to proceed to Nam Chang to aid the federal troops in their operations against the insurgents and that two divisions be sent to reinforce the federal army now at Nam Chang.

Another dispatch to the Sun Chung Kwok Bo from Shanghai states that a body of federal troops under command of General Lee Shim has defeated a detachment of revolutionists at Chin Kiang.

The most remarkable fact about the dispatches of yesterday is that they are silent as to a pitched battle supposed to have been fought July 13 at Sun Chang, their general tenor indicating that no real battle has as yet been fought and that the reports of decisive conflicts in which one or the other side was defeated, have not been confirmed.

HEADS BEGIN TO DROP IN THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS; FURTHER SHAKE-UP IS EXPECTED

Deep in the throes of a shakeup, the territorial department of public works is very much the center of interested discussion among those on the inside and some rank outsiders, much as those interested would like to discredit the stories which were freely discussed around the capitol yesterday.

As a result of the shakeup, Frank M. Friesell, engineer in the Honolulu waterworks, tendered his resignation yesterday and the same was accepted by Superintendent John W. Caldwell yesterday. In the meantime, when suddenly developed in the big department of the territorial government, Franz Ricks, an engineer also connected with the waterworks, severed his connection on June 1 and John H. Kearney, a draftsman in the public works department, also walked out during the past few days.

Other employees of the dual-department are shaking in their official boots and hourly expecting some devoted official head, long in the service, to drop. Among the big army of retainers of all sorts there is fear of the unknown and whispered consultations are the rule of the day among those whose tenure of office seem to be now very much in question.

Superintendent Caldwell left the office early yesterday afternoon and attempts to get in touch with him came to naught. At the office the only information available was that the superintendent had gone home and that he was not feeling well. That the strain of the shakeup had worked on his nerves seemed to be quite accepted by those on the inside.

Whether from overwork, which is a common occurrence in these departments, or from other causes, Superintendent J. M. Little of the Honolulu waterworks has also been absent from the office the past two or three days. The only information obtainable at EAST ORANGE, New Jersey, July 16.—(Special to The Advertiser)—The board of education here is accused of discrimination because it declined to permit Kinoko Yoritani, a Japanese twenty-one years old, to become a pupil in the high school.

The school is attended by many pupils from wealthy families and it is declared the board acted without warrant. The board boxes its refusal on the ground that the Japanese is over school age.

ELOPERS BOUND FOR HONOLULU

Pretty Mary Gwendolyn Casady

Henderson Marries Fritz Tubbs Henshaw, Son of Justice of California Supreme Court—Headed for Paradise of Pacific.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)
OAKLAND, July 16.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Fritz Tubbs Henshaw, son of Justice Frederick W. Henshaw of the supreme court of California, has eloped with Miss Mary Gwendolyn Casady, daughter of the late Senator Casady, and started for Honolulu on a hurriedly planned honeymoon.

Young Henshaw is twenty-two years old and his bride nineteen years of age. The pretty bride lived with her uncle, R. T. Casady, 6928 Claremont avenue. Monday morning she told him that she and Henshaw were going to visit Henshaw's mother at her summer home at Ben Lomond. Mr. Casady helped her aboard the train with her luggage. They were married in the Catholic Church in San Jose and yesterday they broke the news to the uncle from San Francisco over the telephone.

Mr. Casady did not even know their honeymoon destination until their baggage was traced, although he had unwittingly helped start them on their journey.

Kim Tong Ho of Honolulu, Former Student Under Dr. Paul Samuel Reinsch.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Dr. Paul S. Reinsch, professor of Political Economy, University of Wisconsin, has been selected for minister to China.

"Dr. Reinsch knows China like a book," said Kim Tong Ho, exchange clerk at the First National Bank of Honolulu yesterday. "That newly appointed ambassador to China was one of Ho's instructors last year at the University of Wisconsin, from which institution of learning the well known young Chinese student graduated a year ago with exceptionally high honors."

"Like former United States Ambassador Calhoun, Dr. Reinsch has pronounced sympathies for the Chinese Republic and his selection will be well received by the rejuvenated nation of the Orient. That he will make a good American representative at Peking is the opinion of all who have followed the trend of events in the ancient country, newly awakened by the impulse of a great future."

"The new ambassador got his A. B. degree at the University of Wisconsin in 1892 and completed his law course two years later, receiving his LL.B. degree. He took his Ph.D. degree at the same university in 1898. Dr. Reinsch is the third Wisconsin graduate who has been honored with a diplomatic appointment by President Woodrow Wilson. Joseph C. Davies, Wisconsin, 1896, who a year ago took up the secretaryship of the Democratic National Committee and assumed the chairmanship of the Western campaign in the late presidential race, was offered, but declined, the position of ambassador to the court of Austria-Hungary."

"The second recipient of presidential favor was Hon. A. G. Schneiderman, also of Wisconsin, who was chosen as minister to Norway."

"Dr. Reinsch is a distinguished lawyer who has been holding down the professorship of international law and political science at the University of Wisconsin for the past eight years. He is rated an authority on international problems."

"In 1911 and 1912 Dr. Reinsch was sent to Berlin where he held the Roosevelt professorship at the University of Berlin and was frequently a guest at Emperor Wilhelm's court. He was also appointed on several occasions by former Presidents Roosevelt and Taft as the United States representative to the Pan-American congresses of the past few years."

"In his college days, the newly appointed ambassador to China was a prominent debater, orator and editor, and was a member of the Athenaeum, the leading literary society which elected Senator La Follette and Governor McFarland of Wisconsin, now leaders in American politics."

"As a writer, Dr. Reinsch has turned out a number of works, mostly on political subjects, among which may be mentioned, 'Intellectual and Political Conditions in the Far East,' 'World Politics,' 'Colonial Government,' 'Colonial Administration,' 'American Legislation and Legislative Methods,' 'Public International Law,' 'Readings on the American Federal Government,' and likewise on 'State Governments,' and 'English Common Law in the Early American Colonies.'"

LOOK FOR TEMPORARY PAUSE IN FIGHTING

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)

Military operations, however, will continue, it is declared, so that Serbia may be in a position to resume the conflict if Bulgaria refuses to accept the terms offered.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—An appeal to lower the parcel post rate has been presented to Postmaster General Burleson by the Postal Progress League. The postmaster general has the power under the law to change the rates.

The league says that an eleven-pound parcel may be sent from Germany to Cuba for 50 cents and to Uruguay for 85 cents, while the charge for fifteen pounds from the United States to any foreign country is $1.32. An American firm with a branch in Chemnitz, Germany, mails an eleven-pound parcel to San Francisco for $1.00, while from its New York house to San Francisco the charge is $1.32. It therefore finds it cheaper to route all its foreign business directly from the German branch.

The league has issued a circular to questioning citizens to write to the postmaster general urging a reduction of the rates.

The value of the latter is set at $286,128.40.

STRIVING TO AVERT GREAT STRIKE

Representatives of Eastern Railroads and Committee Members Meet for Conference on Wage Scale Effecting Twenty Thousand Trainmen and Conductors on Principal Railroads.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)

NEW YORK, July 17.—(Special to The Advertiser)—A conference was held here today between committees representing the Eastern railroads and their trainmen and conductors to arrange the details of a plan for arbitration of wages affecting more than a half million men, who seek a twenty per cent increase in wages. Their threat to strike if their demands were not met caused the passage by congress of the Newlands amendment to the Erdman Act, following a conference at the White House on Monday of the parties to the dispute.

Two points which threatened trouble remain to be arranged. One of these is the threatened strike of employees of the railroads, independent of the general differences, and the other is the determination of the railroads to force an arbitration of their grievances against their employees.

Mrs. Joe Ferrage Has Alleged Neglectful Spouse Jailed.

Expressing considerable doubt as to whether the new wife desertion law will hold water, the first case under the act was commenced yesterday by the arrest of Joe Ferrage for desertion of his wife, on a warrant sworn by the woman.

The arrest was made at the direct request of the wife, but it is understood that several attorneys refused to take up the case for her on the ground that the law had been mixed up in its passage by the legislature and that action under it would probably be fruitless.

The chief fault in the new law, it is said, is that it does not plainly establish jurisdiction. The first section, stating that the offense is a misdemeanor and providing the penalty, is plain. But the next section, according to part of the legal fraternity, gives the court powers to do things that the police court, not being a court of record, can not do. Thus they say, the first section seems to place its enforcement under the jurisdiction of the police court and the second section seems to place it under the circuit court.

"The intent of the law is a fine thing," said Acting-Sheriff Rose yesterday, "I would not like to see it knocked out on any grounds."

VETERAN FINDS A BRIDE AT GETTYSBURG

GETTYSBURG, July 2.—A romance developed in camp today when John Goodwin, of New York, a veteran, and Margaret Murphy, of Chicago, were united in marriage by Squire Harshbarger. Forty-six years ago the two were engaged, but they subsequently married. They became widower and widow, the old flame was rekindled, and they agreed to come to Gettysburg on the fiftieth anniversary of the battle and marry.

The five Orientals arrested Tuesday for having larks in their possession were given suspended sentences of thirteen months yesterday morning by Judge Monarrat. Yee Wo, one of the defendants, wept when he learned that the police were going to liberate his pet, saying that he had owned it for twenty years and thought more of it than his brother.

But the last word of the Declaration of Independence, for Oahu larks was taken yesterday morning when Chief McDuffie placed one of his own officers, John Woo, Korean detective and interpreter, under arrest for having one of the birds in his possession. The Declaration of Orthological Independence was written by the legislature; the chief feels that it is up to him to carry on the war of the revolution.

With the commendable purpose of populating Wilhelmina Rise with larks, eighteen of the confiscated birds who, with their owners, were taken into custody Tuesday night, were taken out to Kaimuki yesterday morning and released by the chief of detectives. Upon return it was learned that Woo owned a lark, so he was accordingly arrested. Then it was discovered that Mounted Officer Kramer owned a lark, and the chief ordered him to hustle it down to the station.

Kramer, who had just witnessed Woo's fate broke all speed knits, crying as he left: "You bet I will, if he did cost me fifteen dollars Tuesday."

The board of immigration, labor and statistics of the Territory has arranged to bring a suit before the supreme court on a statement of agreed facts against the board of commissioners of agriculture and forestry and J. Smith is at present going over the papers in the case, which may be filed today.
